

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
INFORMATION REPORT

This material contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, U.S.C. Secs. 793 and 794, the transmission or revelation of which in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

25X1

SECRET

| | | | |
|-----------------------|----------------------------------|------------------------|-----------------|
| COUNTRY | Poland | REPORT | |
| SUBJECT | Production of Synthetic Gasoline | DATE DISTR. | 3 December 1954 |
| | | NO. OF PAGES | 1 |
| DATE OF INFO. | | REQUIREMENT NO. | RD |
| PLACE ACQUIRED | | REFERENCES | |

25X1

THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE.
 THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.
 (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE)

25X1

It is reported that the prevailing shortage of Polish coal for export purposes is due to the increasing use of coal in Poland for the production of synthetic gasoline. It requires 200 pounds of coal to manufacture one liter of gasoline.

25X1

| | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |
|-------|---|------|---|------|---|-----|---|-----|--|-----|--|--|--|--|--|--|
| STATE | X | ARMY | X | NAVY | X | AIR | X | FBI | | AEC | | | | | | |
|-------|---|------|---|------|---|-----|---|-----|--|-----|--|--|--|--|--|--|

(NOTE: Washington distribution indicated by "X"; Field distribution by "#".)